Synopsis of the Armenian Message

(Habakkuk Chapter 3)

The prophet Habakkuk complained twice to God and twice God answered him. Now in chapter three he speaks for the third time, but instead of a complaint he utters a prayer. In verses 1 and 2 he renews and asserts his faith in God. In verses 17 to 19, he renews his trust in God. He says that despite all the external signs that make him wonder where God is, and that no matter how discouraging the situation gets, he will trust in God. In fact he not only will trust God, but he says, "I will be joyful in God my Savior." No matter how bleak the external signs are he will find joy and rejoice in God.

The lesson that we learn from this short book is that sometimes we have many questions and few answers. But the Word of God assures us that God is working through the history of the world, and He is directing its course. Jesus committed himself to the will of the Father and he did not doubt His Father's love and justice even when He was hanging on a cross. We are also invited to totally trust God and commit ourselves to Him.
