Synopsis of the Armenian Sermon

(2 Peter 3:1-7)

In this third chapter of his second letter, Peter reminds his readers of the reasons for writing them two letters.

1. He wants them to remember the truth spoken to them by the apostles (vv.1-2).
2. He warns them against the scoffers who were mocking their belief in the second coming of Jesus (vv.3-4).
3. He rebukes the scoffers for forgetting the truth (vv.5-7).

Friends, the passing of time can sometimes cause people to wonder about Christ’s return, but remember that God is eternal and infinite. Remember the truth and keep the faith.
