CALL TO WORSHIP

HYMNS & SONGS– #22 “How Great Thou Art” (Songbook-1,3,4)
#18A “Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”
(Songbook-1,3,4)

UNISON READING–1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. According to the Lord’s own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words.

Synopsis of the Armenian Message

Verses 1-6, end the book of Malachi and all of the Old Testament. The prophet reminds the people that surely a day of reckoning is coming when all things will be set straight. That “Great Day of the Lord” will be a day of purifying fire that will consume and remove everything that is not of God. But for those who “revere God’s name” it will be a day of joy and gladness. The “sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.”

The final three verses look back and remind the people to keep God’s law that was mediated to them through Moses. They also look forward to the return of the prophet Elijah meaning John the Baptist. He will bring about reform in the lives of the people, making them resemble their godly forefathers. All this will prepare the way for the Christ who will come to redeem a people for Himself through His sacrifice on the cross.

Friends, let us give thanks to God who controls the present and the future. Let us also commit anew ourselves to Him.
